PRICE 5 CENTS

AU REVOIR'S FAST MILE.

Worth is certainly being favored with good weather for its spring meeting, and the attendance thus far has been all that could be desired. By far the largest crowd of the week was present yesterday and was well repaid, for the racing was contested throughout, and was productive in several instances of close and spirited finishes.

The feature race of the day, the fourth, a handicap purse of $600 for three-year-olds and upward, resulted in somewhat of a surprise, and was also a source of keen disappointment to those that had backed Autumn Leaves, undoubtedly the best horse in the race at the time. This fast filly was thought by the talent to be the best and was the medium of heavy backing, but got off badly and failed to finish in the first three. The winner turned up in the lightly-weighted Ahola which was lucky in getting away in her stride to a bad start. She tipped the field for the entire distance and was never headed winning in a hard drive by a head from The Lady, which beat Emshee a half length for second place. Ahola stood a last sixteenth drive well, but was tiring at the end. The Lady showed much improvement and is rounding into her best form. Emshee was interfered with at the turn for home and hardly got clear sailing until a sixteenth out, from which point he closed up ground fast. If You Dare ran to his best form and finished going fast. Autumn Leaves was flat-footed when the barrier went up and was practically left at the post. Robbins, however, went on with her and persevering throughout, closed up a big gap, finishing lapped on If You Dare.

Many had been led to believe by the showing made here by Au Revoir at this meeting that he hardly cared to go over seven furlongs, but he gave the lie to this opinion by winning the third race, a spin of one mile for three-year-olds, in a big canter. Linguist was regarded as much the best, being held at about 8 to 5 in the betting, but he ran a dull race and failed to finish in the first three. To a good start The Don, showing his customary speed, led by a fair margin until just after entering the last quarter, where he fell away beaten, retiring in favor of Au Revoir, which moved away from the field fast in the final furlong, winning in a canter by two and one-half lengths from Soothsayer, which beat Mimo a nose on the post for second place. Soothsayer did some bumping while running next to the inside rail at the last sixteenth post. Linguist was pocketed while going down the backstretch and swung wide when turning into the stretch, losing much ground. He was under punishment in the stretch and tired fast in the last sixteenth. This race should do him much good.

Thane had an easy race of it in the fifth, a mile and seventy yards dash for four-year-olds and upward. Dr. Stephens was suffered to set the pace for the first seven furlongs, where Thane, which had been running along within easy call of him, was called on and went to the front in a few strides winning as his rider pleased by three-quarters of a length from Dr. Stephens, which beat Caliban three lengths for second place. The last named ran a promising race for a horse that had not started in months, and bears watching from now on.

An unwieldy field of thirteen started in the day's opener, a six furlongs dash for maidens three-year-olds and upward, the winner turning up in the heavily backed favorite Irby Bennett, which really made those back of him look cheap. He ran The Rabbit into early submission and then came away with ease, winning by four lengths from Merryflight, which finished three before The Rabbit for second place. Merryflight, off poorly, ran an excellent race being much the best of all but the winner. The Rabbit showed speed for five furlongs. Feby Blue retired beaten just after turning for home.

Don Domo was easily the best of a field of six two-year-olds in the second race, a four and a half furlongs scramble. Off well in his stride he led from start to finish, winning well in hand by two and a half lengths from Determination, which beat Capitol eight for second place. The race was strictly a two-horse affair. Lord Tennyson, Miss Hortense and Crusoe were caught napping when the barrier went up and by the time they had gotten into their full stride were practically out of the race.

The last race of the day, a dash of one and one-sixteenth miles for three-year-olds and upward, went to John A. Clarke, with Will Sherry second and Bonnie Lissak third.

Betting was heavy throughout the day and the track very fast.

LOCAL TURF GOSSIP.

Jockey Coburn left last night for Louisville, Ky., where he will ride the Bennett entry Sanctum in the Nursery Stakes, to be decided today.

H. N. McTyrie arrived yesterday from Nashville, Tenn., with the following horses: Charley Thompson, Carrie L. Pea Ridge, Uncle Ruben and Frances Yowell.

M. Jordan reached Worth yesterday from Baltimore, Md. His four horses, including Fingal, will arrive today.

Merryflight, which started in the opening race yesterday, is reported to have worked recently by moonlight six furlongs in a fraction better than 1:14. Evidently some one else besides her owners shared the secret of the great flight of speed she had shown in her workouts, for the price posted against her chances was a small one, considering that in her only previous start she had been left at the post. In yesterday's race she was again away poorly, but chiefly on account of jockey Robbins' slowness at the barrier. The midjet rider was also responsible for the failure of Autumn Leaves, her stable companion, she being practically left. Had they both been sent away on even terms it is more than likely that they would have won their respective races.

Emshee, which was heavily backed in the fourth race, was nearly thrown down at the stretch turn by The Lady. Otis on the former was about to make his run and attempted to go through next to the inside rail, but Pirman on The Lady pulled in, forcing Otis to pull up to keep from going down, and effectually destroying Emshee's chances.

Linguist's poor performance yesterday was a disappointment to a number of his admirers who had imagined him to have a chance in the American Derby. His trainer, W. Phillips, could not account for the horse's bad showing other than to say that he attempted to run out on all the turns.

The Orland Stakes, at one mile, which is carded for decision today, contains a goodly number of horses with pretensions to class

Winner—B. h, by Iroquois—Ossuta (trained by P. Meaney).

Went to post at 2:30. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Seminole trailed for half the journey, and being saved while going up the hill on the backstretch made good with a winning stretch run and scored a lucky victory. Gould was excessively used early in the race and tired and was swerving in the stretch run. Ohnet, after forcing the pace for nine furlongs, was crowded against the fence on the inside losing a half dozen lengths, but recovered ground rapidly at the end. McGrathiana Prince, from a rearward position on the backstretch, was raced up the hill into prominence and was tiring and swerving in the last quarter. Big Gun was best and drew clear of the field, an apparent easy winner, at the last hurdle, where he fell.

Scratched—33936 Arian, 141.

Overweights—Ben Battle, 3 pounds.

Seminole, show, 4 to 1. Gould, show, evens. Ohnet, show, evens. Big Gun, show, 1 to 4.

Winner—B. c, by Ben Strome—Henrietta (trained by T. E. Healey).

Went to post at 3:00. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won handily; second easily. Highlander looked a trifle high, but far outclassed his field, forced the early pace, drawing clear at the half and thereafter was alternately easing up and hand ridden and nearly all out at the end to beat the fast coming Minotaur. The latter appeared unable to get out of close quarters until in the last furlong, when he finished fast under the whip and ran a game race. Andrattus followed the winner's pace closely for five furlongs, then went wide on the stretch turn losing much ground, but gamely disposed of the others after a long stretch drive. Pittacus, poorly ridden and improving his position in the last half, was going fast at the end. Sister Juliet was poorly handled and well up at the finish. Mercer displayed a good turn of speed, but failed to stay and was probably short.

Scratched—(38833)Satire, 115; 38522 Attila, 106.

Overweights—Merry Maker, 1 pound.

Highlander, show, 1 to 2. Minotaur, show, 1 to 3. Andrattus, show, 2^h to 1.

Winner—B. c, by Ingoldsby—Radiance (trained by J. Bauer).

Went to post at 3:25. At post 3 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second the same. Ingold made the running well in hand to the stretch, where he came away with a rush apparently an easy winner, but was unexpectedly driving hard at the end and was probably short. Brigand, away poorly, closed a big gap and finished with a rush and was probably best today. Love Note outran all but the winner for the first six furlongs, but was tiring and swerving badly at the end and should be improved by the race. Akela was making up ground fast at the end. Tristesse overcame a lot of interference in the first furlong and on the stretch turn and her effort was a good one. Dauphin is a good looker and is reported to have worked fast and should improve greatly. Ink is also worth remembering. Contusion fell lame while running well and is probably broken down.

Scratched—38807 Colonsay, 125; 34885 Barnstormer, 115; 38828 Castalian, 112.

Corrected weights—Ingold, 112.

GETTING READY AT LATONIA.

The Latonia officials are confidently looking forward to the best meeting held at their track in recent years, and horses are arriving daily in considerable numbers. Several important western stables will start their horses for the first time this year at the Latonia meeting, Baker & Gentry and Oots Bros. in particular. Of recent arrivals at the track the Enquirer of yesterday says:

"The colonization of Latonia for the spring meeting which is to open one week from Wednesday next was augmented yesterday by the arrival of forty-three horses, the property of Clay Bros., Oots Bros., Baker & Gentry and W. J. Young.

"Besides the three-year-old bay gelding Monsieur Beaucaire, by Sir Dixon—Ollie Glenn, there were seven two-year-olds in the outfit of Clay Bros., which came up from Louisville during the night in charge of the colored trainer, French Brooks, and were taken off the cars about 6 o'clock. Flying Ship, Paris and Dungannon, having stake engagements, were left at Louisville.

The following are the two-year-olds in the string:

Lady Amelia, br. f, by Ben Brush—La Colonia.

Lonsdale, br. c, by Flying Dutchman—Ollie Dale.

Memories, br. f, by Sir Dixon—Meridin.

Nisbal, ch. f, by Hindoo—The Niece.

Outcome, b. f, by Sir Dixon—Ollie Glenn.

Bewitcher, ch. f, by The Commoner—Janie Clay.

Sallie Catlett, ch. f, by Flying Dutchman—Magna Charta.

"Of this lot Memories, Outcome, Sallie Catlett and Lady Amelia are entered in the Clipsetta Stakes, Paris and Lonsdale are in the Harold Stakes and Lady Amelia, Paris and Lonsdale are candidates for the Cincinnati Trophy.

"Oots Bros.—Howard and Edward—brought up ten head from Lexington, and they are the best looking lot of horses that ever occupied a stable on anybody's race-track. There are three eligibles to the Latonia Derby in this stable, but that does not necessarily mean that they will all be seen in colors on the opening day. First Mason, the chestnut son of First Mate—Manola Mason, consequently a half brother to McChesney, is the one which will most likely represent the stable in the Derby if he can be got ready. He has grown into a nice looking horse, and has the appearance of a weight carrier, but Mr. Oots says that he has not sent him a mile in his work as yet. Novelist and Moyle are the other eligibles. The former is really the best looking three-year-old in the barn. He worked a mile yesterday afternoon, kicked out, in 1:48, and the track was in fine condition.

"Moyle is a great big horse, but his legs appear faulty enough to prevent any such rushing as it would now take to get him ready for the Derby route by the 20th. The brag horse of the collection is a dark gray two-year-old colt called Turando, by Farandole—Turtle Dove. He is of good size, well shaped, quick, but not nervous, and they say he is lightning in action. He comes here with five-eighths in 1:02 1/4 over the hard track at Lexington to his credit. He is a candidate for the Harold Stakes. In addition to these the string contains Axares, Owen More, Extol, Almanzo, Darnivon, a three-year-old chestnut colt by Blanton—Brigazee, and Murmur, a two-year-old filly by St. Florian—Mollie Pitcher. This string got in about 6 o'clock and were put away in the barn facing the five-eighths ground.

"The strings of Baker & Gentry and W. J. Young came up on the same train from Lexington. They were loaded in the Bluegrass City at 6 o'clock yesterday morning, and at 10:30 they were off the cars and in their stalls. The Baker & Gentry string is in charge of the well-known trainer 'Jack' Baker and numbers thirteen, of which nine are two-year-olds, as follows:

Marseilles, b. f, by Sir Walter—Lou Dudley.

Artimesia, br. f, by Albert—Annie Layne.

Flo Manola, ch. f, by St. Florian—Manola.

May Combs, b. f, by Charaxus—Merry Maid.

Silk Maid, b. f, by Esher—Kate Pelletier.

Fred Lazarus, b. c, by Charaxus—Sancil.

Henry Waite, ch. c, by Hermence—Hanselle.

Marshal Ney, b. c, by Dr. Rice—Glenore.

Fritz, b. c, by Scorpion—Linderlette.

"In addition to these are the three-year-olds, F. A. Bullock and McLaughlin, the latter by Wagner—Flora Thornton. He was thrown out of training as a two-year-old, and has never been to the races. He is a fair looking colt, but 'Jack' says he don't call for much. Then of course, there is G. W. W. and J. W. Rhodes. The former looks in fine shape. Last year he caught pneumonia while en route to Louisville, and it was not until late in the summer that he was able to race. J. W. Rhodes has grown into a great big horse, and looks like he might be useful in handicaps. He is entered in the Brewers' Handicap along with F. A. Bullock, and he will be a starter if he can be got ready. The horses are all in good health and look trim. The two-year-olds are a clean-limbed lot. The raciest looking one of the outfit is the filly Artimesia. She along with May Combs, is entered in the Clipsetta Stakes. Marshal Ney and Fritz are candidates for the Harold Stakes. The former is the better looking colt of the two. For the Cincinnati Trophy May Combs and Marshal Ney have been named. May Combs is a likely looking little miss which has shown a half around 50 seconds, which is stepping some at Lexington, considering the condition of the track."

Red Comyn ran well, was under a hard drive all of the last quarter and finished fast and gamely, but could never get to the leader. Florizar was crowded back at the first turn and dropped out of it in the first half, but made up a lot of ground in the last quarter and pulled up sound.

Brookston saved ground at the turn into the homestretch and was under a drive all of the last furlong. Captain Duckado finished fast and would have been second in a few more strides. Poor Boy was left at the post and closed a big gap. He ran into a pocket at the far turn and Winkfield pulled him up and went all around his field. He was easily best and would have cantered home had he got off.

Henry Burt went to the front when Crowhurst was ready and came away without great effort and was only cantering in the last fifty yards. He ran The Rabbit into early submission and then came away on call winning as his rider pleased. Merryflight ran an impressive race. Went to post at 3:55. At post 3 minutes. Start straggling. Won easily; second driving. Highball received a lucky start and after a long drive to retain the lead he came away fast in the final sixteenth. Grenada was a prominent contender throughout and his race was a good one. Luxembourg was closing up fast at the end and probably unlucky to lose second place. Sir Walt, Anyway and Dolly Spanker ran well and finished close up. The others were beaten off and pulling up. Dolly Spanker is a grand looker and appeared out of place in such a short sprint, but closed a tremendous gap from a bad start and was running faster than the leaders at the end.

Went to post at 4:24. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Carbuncle trailed next to the rail to the stretch where he finished fast under a vigorous ride, outstaying Stevedore after a long drive. The latter from a poor start quickly raced into a long and apparently winning lead, and although tiring after ill-timed and excessive early use, fought out the issue unexpectedly gamely. Flying Buttress, which went the longest way around on the turns, was overhauling the leaders at the end and ran an extra good race. Paul Clifford followed the fast pace closely for six furlongs and ran in improved form. Duellist retired early in the race.

Went to post at 4:50. At post 3 minutes. Start bad. Won driving; second the same. Embarrassment, away in the rear division, steadily improved his position and a lucky opening in the stretch enabled him when with clear sailing to overhaul and pass Lord Advocate in the last fifty yards. The latter was always a prominent contender and when a furlong out assumed command and his rider was probably caught napping right at the end by the winner. Knight of the Garter rushed into the lead early, but fell away when straightened for the finish. Showman was a good horse badly messed about. Remorse looked high in flesh and ran as if short and can do much better. Past worked through a rough journey under a bad ride. Early Eve closed a tremendous gap. Agnes D. looked far from fit and will improve.

Embarrassment, show, 6 to 5. Lord Advocate, show, 7 to 1. Knight of the Garter, show, 5 to 1. Remorse, show, 4 to 5. Pageant, show, 4 to 5.

*Apprentice allowance. Time, 13½, 24½, 49½, 1:16½.

Winner—B. g, by Buckmaster—Missouri II. (trained by J. C. Cahn).

Went to post at 2:36. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Budweiser was given a very good ride and that won for him. He showed speed, was a sharp contender throughout and finished resolutely. Lord Melbourne was lucky and ran a very good race. Cursus was allowed to drop out of it at the three-eighths post, but came fast in the stretch and was wearing the others down. Anzeiger was off badly and ran a winning race from where he got off.

Budweiser, show, 1 to 4. Lord Melbourne, show, 1 to 2. Cursus, show, evens. Dotty Shute, show, 2 to 5.

38865 SECOND RACE—1-2 Mile. Purse $400. 2-year-olds. Maidens. Allowances.

Winner—B. f, by Russell—Silverstone (trained by C. Latham).

Went to post at 3:06. At post 2 minutes. Start poor. Won easily; second the same. Radium broke smartly and was waited with in front. Rhyme and Reason challenged her at the sixteenth post, but Austin let out a link and Radium easily drew away. She is a big stout filly and looks like a good one. Rhyme and Reason ran a good race and showed improvement. Ascot finished fast as usual and will probably beat good ones over a longer distance. Bill Knight ran a good race and will bear watching.

Scratched—38817 Pinky B., 105; 38792 Bessie B., 105.

Radium, show, out. Rhyme and Reason, show, 8 to 5. The entry, show, out.

Winner—Ch. c, by Dorian—Quadruplet (trained by E. Stubbs).

Went to post at 3:34. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Pettijohn waited behind the leaders to the stretch, then came on fast and won easily. Barkelmore ran in greatly improved form under capable handling. Howling Dersish ran a good race under a weak ride. Beautiful and Best and Kittie Cut a Dash showed speed and tired. Ma'mselle's race was not her true form.

Pettijohn, show, evens. Barkelmore, show, 7 to 5. Howling Dersish, show, 6 to 5. Beautiful and Best, show, 1 to 2. Kittie Cut a Dash, show, 7 to 10. Ma'mselle, show, 4 to 5.

Winner—B. c, by Longstreet—Honeymoon (trained by S. S. Bender).

Went to post at 4:03. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Jack Demund was pocketed for the first quarter, but when clear he showed great speed and opened a big gap. He was tiring near the end and may have been a shade short. Flintlock closed up a lot of ground from a bad beginning and came fast in the stretch, but was tiring at the end. Sambo scarcely ran his race and was probably made too much use of in the early stages. Bengal went well for seven furlongs.

Scratched—38796 Pharoah, 107.

Overweights—Flintlock, 2 pounds.

Jack Demund, show, 1 to 3. Flintlock, show, 1 to 3. Sambo, show, out.

Winner—Br. h, by Iroquois—Hilda (trained by P. M. Civill).

Went to post at 4:36. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. There was a crowding match at the first turn, in which Joe Lesser all but fell down. Chappaqua was free of interference, quickly gained a long lead and had no trouble in maintaining it. Joe Lesser ran a good race after recovering his stride. Ben Chance ran to the mark. W. B. Gates showed speed, but tired in the stretch.

Scratched—38797 Outlaw, 98.

No show betting.
